Proxy Form

Along with this invitation, you have received a reply form for ordering the admission ticket required to attend the meeting or for appointing as your proxy:

- a) another shareholder (use proxy form or back of admission ticket request)
- b) our company
If you sign the proxy form (use reply form or back of admission ticket request) and return it to our company without voting instructions, we will make sure that your vote is cast in favour of the proposals of the Board of Directors (by its representative, Dr. Daniel Lack, General Secretary).
- c) the independent proxy
Under Art. 689c of the Swiss Code of Obligations, you may authorize Mr. Franz Müller, Attorney and Notary, Herrengasse 22, Postbox 663, 3000 Berne 7, to serve as your proxy (use reply form or back of admission ticket request). Mr. Müller will vote in accordance with your instructions (please use the reverse side of the reply form or the admission ticket request). In the absence of instructions, he will vote in favour of the proposals of the Board of Directors. This will also apply should amendments or additions to proposals be made at the AGM. You should send the reply form giving written voting instructions to Mr. Müller by 10 April 2008 at the latest.

Proxy holders of deposited shares under Art. 689d of the Swiss Code of Obligations are requested to notify the company regarding the number and nominal value of shares held by them as soon as possible but by 15 April 2008 3:00 pm at the latest, upon admission to the meeting. Institutions subject to the Swiss Banking Law and commercial asset managers shall qualify as proxy holders of deposited shares.

The shareholders' ledger will be closed on 9 April 2008. Shareholders who sell their shares after this date will no longer be entitled to vote at the General Meeting.
